

Edie Ann Feigles
Director: Co Chair Fundraising

Edie Ann Feigles has spent the past 15 years working in the Architectural, Engineering and Development industry. As the Director of Business Development she has spearheaded new business development, developed design team relationships and been the community liaison for Architectural, Engineering and Development firms. Through her early work in a variety of projects in the Metro Washington DC area, Edie Ann found a passion for urban, mixed-use development and re-development projects. This passion led her to involvement on the board of a grass roots community development non-profit as well as writing the white paper for the re-establishment of an Industrial Development Authority.

Edie Ann moved to Scottsdale, Arizona in July of 2008 to pursue a Masters of Real Estate Development at ASU. The program accepts just 36 candidates per year into its' accelerated 36 week program.

Edie Ann holds a BS in Business Administration from Delaware Valley College in Doylestown, Pennsylvania. She has been actively involved both in Maryland and in Arizona in a wide variety of organizations including AIA, ULI, NAIOP, SAME, SMPS, CREW and BOMA. She is a graduate of 2007 Leadership Frederick County, Frederick, MD and is currently involved in the development of a Maryland College Leadership Program.
