

Patrice Lydick
Director: Co Chair Fundraising

Patrice spent the majority of her professional career as an educator in the secondary/ post secondary arena and has recycled herself to enjoy the freedoms of operating a small business running around in a much dustier arena with her four legged friends. Her desire to work with children and horses brought her to Horses Help for a NAHRA certification class and she became hooked. She believes that .You can ever have a bad day when you are doing what you love. .
Patrice currently enjoys living in Fountain Hills with her husband Don.
